

Summer Course in Gregorian Chant

23-27 August 2021

ANGELUS DOMINI

revelavit in celis et super terram quia crucifixum quem non visibiter erat dominus alleluia. Angelus domini in celis et super terram quia crucifixum quem non visibiter

Kloosterkerk The Hague, The Netherlands

www.gregoriaans-platform.nl

#gregorianchant2021

Summer Course in Gregorian Chant

23-27 August 2021

The Amici Cantus Gregoriani Foundation, in association with the Early Music department of the Royal Conservatoire, is organising a special Summer Course in Gregorian Chant in the Kloosterkerk in The Hague from 23 to 27 August 2021.

The course focuses on singing and conducting Gregorian chant, as well as research into the disclosure of medieval sources. The course consists of workshops, lectures, presentations and concerts. Joint Vespers open and close the course. There is room for 80-100 participants, from the Netherlands and abroad.

The course is taught by a team consisting of a variety of experts, including Jaan-Eik Tulve, Eugeen Liven D'Abelardo, Kees Pouderoijen, Marcel Zijlstra, Franco Ackermans and Antoine Bodar. Course leader is Anthony Zielhorst.

Further information, registration and purchasing tickets via the website www.gregoriaans-platform.nl.

Application deadline: June 1, 2021